

About CGMA

The Chartered Global Management Accountant (CGMA) designation is the most widely held management accounting designation in the world. It distinguishes more than 150,000 accounting and finance professionals who have achieved advanced proficiency in finance, operations, strategy and management. The CGMA designation is underpinned by extensive global research to maintain the highest relevance with employers and develop in-demand competencies.

CGMA designation holders qualify through rigorous education, exam and experience requirements. They must commit to lifelong education and adhere to a stringent code of ethical conduct. Businesses, governments and not-for-profits around the world trust CGMA designation holders to guide critical decisions that drive strong performance.

About CIMA

The Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA), founded in 1919, is the world's leading and largest professional body of management accountants, with members and students operating in 177 countries, working at the heart of business. CIMA members and students work in industry, commerce, the public sector and not-for-profit organizations.

Together with the American Institute of CPAs (AICPA), CIMA has established the Chartered Global Management Accountant (CGMA) designation, a global-quality designation that further elevates the profession of management accounting. The designation recognizes the most talented and committed management accountants with the discipline and skill to drive strong business performance.

Get your career ready for a digital age.

You possess vast experience in finance and management – but with disruption being the norm in today’s marketplace, it takes more than experience alone to stay ahead.

We’d like to help future-proof your career, so we’ve designed the CGMA Strategic Leaders Programme just for you. This exclusive programme puts you on a fast-track route to gain the Chartered Global Management Accountant® (CGMA®) designation.

CGMA distinguishes more than 150,000 accounting and finance professionals who have achieved advanced proficiency in finance, operations, strategy and management.

With a revamped syllabus featuring emerging technologies and their use cases, the 2019 CIMA professional qualification – which you will study to attain your CGMA – will complement your experience and help you build a digital-ready career.

Is this programme for me?

If you are in a C-level or senior management position with 10 years of relevant work experience* in finance or business functions, this programme is for you.

* Relevant work experience refers to the practical experience requirements specified by CIMA in obtaining CIMA membership and the CGMA designation.

What is the programme criteria?

- You need to attempt the CIMA Strategic Case Study exam within 12 months of your registration.
- If you’ve been successfully selected as a candidate, you need to submit a CIMA membership application immediately before or after you sit for the exam

You’re just one exam away from the CGMA designation:

Step 1

Fill up the registration form and submit it along with your CV, relevant educational transcripts and a copy of your ID or passport online at Thailand.Application@aicpa-cima.com.

Step 2

Upon successful application, CIMA will admit you as a participant into the programme.

Step 3

Attend our orientation and revision workshop to prepare for the Strategic Case Study exam, then file an application for official CIMA membership.

Step 4

Sit for the Strategic Case Study exam.

Step 5

Upon passing the exam and successful membership application, you’ll be admitted as a full CIMA member and awarded the CGMA designation.
